It says here we can move up to Canada and the temperature will be cooler. Plus there’s universal health care and better fishing.

Global Hawk has located a gathering of suspicious, below average consumers with library books about climatology.

What?! They dare to resist our freedoms? Deploy the nuclear option. We’ll teach ’em the power of full spectrum information warfare. Unleash the black ops. Plant the fake news, and leverage the total information awareness data shadows.

They’re calling it the “green peril.”

She’s daisy the zombie flower, the menace of solar power. She threatens the dollar with free wireless power. She’s daisy the zombie flower!

It’s being reported that rogue winemilitants are obstructing the roadside views of passing motorists on the great interstate highway system.

Did you say “militants”?! We gotta go nuclear!

Terror alert buy more duct tape!
